

Sinclair's actions, particularly their timing, are an egregious abuse of their broadcast license. They should face loss of their license if they do not back off on their broadcast of the anti-Kerry video until after the election